

Final Exam

The final exam is worth 25% of your final grade. Don't be late for the exam and do not open any notes or electronic devices during the exam.

Exam's Structure

The exam will consist of quote identification, true and false questions, multiple choice, matching, defining terms, character identification, fill in the blank, poetry close-reading short answer section, and a 5-paragraph essay response.

The questions will derive from lectures, lecture notes available on Power Point, Macbeth (with a focus on Acts 1-3), the poetry, the novel Frankenstein, and Joyce's "Araby", "Two Gallants", "Eveline" and "The Dead." I encourage you to consider ideas we've discussed in class and the midterm review as good hints for what we will cover in the exam.

I will provide the final exam's essay question 24 hours before the exam is scheduled so I suggest you prepare your ideas to feel comfortable writing during the exam period.

Some hints for success....

Check out our review game on Blackboard, review your own notes, and review the midterm BUT also note that I didn't review everything during the game: remember the importance of:

1. The Romantic Period characteristics
2. Connections between and among texts this semester (intertextuality)
3. Historical facts from Power Point lectures
4. Important characters from Macbeth
5. Religious iconography and symbols/figures from art and literature
